

TomTom Supervisory Board chairman resigns for health reasons

Amsterdam, 29 September 2005 Benno Hoogendoorn has decided to resign as Chairman of the Supervisory Board of TomTom N.V. with immediate effect for health reasons.

He also resigns as board member of the Foundation Continuity TomTom.

"Benno joined TomTom's supervisory board four months ago as our first chairman. During those four months, Benno made an important contribution to our company, both in his role as chairman but most importantly in providing us with sound and solid advice at a critical stage in the development of our company. We wish Benno a speedy recovery." said Harold Goddijn, chief executive officer of TomTom

About TomTom

TomTom NV is a leading provider of personal navigation products and services to the consumer market. TomTom's products are developed with an emphasis on innovation, quality, ease of use and value. TomTom's products include all-in-one navigation devices which enable customers to navigate right out of the box, as well as navigation software products which integrate with third party devices such as PDAs and smartphones. TomTom's portfolio of products and services includes the award-winning TomTom GO family of integrated navigation devices, the TomTom Navigator software for PDAs, TomTom MOBILE navigation software for smartphones and TomTom Plus, a location-based content and services offering for TomTom's navigation products. TomTom was founded in 1991 in Amsterdam and has offices in the Netherlands, the United Kingdom, the United States and Taiwan. TomTom's products are sold through a network of leading retailers in 17 countries and online.